CLOSE OF THE OCEAN COUNTY CLUB'S TOURNAMENT AT LAKEWOOD.

F. J. J. DE RAISMES CAPTURES THE FIRST AND HANDICAP CUPS-CONSOLATION PRIZE FOR

TATLOR-GOOD SCORES AT MEDAL PLAY. The three days' open tournament on the links of the Ocean County Hunt Club, of Lakewood, was brought to a close yesterday with the final rounds for the secretary's and vice-president's cups and a medal-play handicap, in which nineteen cards were returned. All three contests were at thirty-six holes, which kept the golfers going most of the day, but fortunately only a few pairs were caught by the shower late in the afternoon. F. J. J. de Raismes and Arthur Claffin were the competitors of the secretary's cup. and the most competitors and reserved the secretary's cup. and the most competitors are secretary's cup. and the most competitors. dor the secretary's cup, and the match was ably fought on both sides. Zie was beaten by 8 up and 6 to play. Taylor scoring three 47s and a 52, making a total for the double round, including byes, of 197.

The scores in both these matches were allowed to count in the handicap, and here Burdett O'Connor was the winner. Whatever O'Connor's failings may be as a match player, he certainly has shown form of the game, and he not only won the handi-cap trophy yesterday, but he tied with De Raismes for the gross-score medal as well. The tie was at 181, and was decided by playing a single hole, which De Raisnes won, giving him his third prize in the tournament.

Though this is the last big contest at the Ocean Though this is the last big contest at the Ocean County links it will by no mense put an end to the season there. Next Saturday there is to be a special contest for a cup presented by Justice Henry A. Gildersleeve, in which the competitors are to be limited to the use of two clubs in their bounds, and other attractive matches are planned for the coming weeks. The new road, which has lately been opened to the links, and which materially lessens the distance to the big hotels, is to be improved and macadamized, and several thousand collars are to be spent on the links. The summary of the best cards yesterday is given below.

CLUB'S LINKS-A BIG FIELD IN THE HANDICAP.

The Westchester Country Club got together its best team yesterday and sent it down to Lakewood for a team match with the Lakewood golfers. The latter "got together" also, and sent their com petitors home beaten by a score of 33 to 7. But the match was not as one-sided as these figures might good golf, with the exception of De Lancey Nicoll, seem to indicate. The Westchester men played who was beaten by 17 holes, and the ad-rocates of the Tuxedo system of scoring will probably seize upon this as another instance of the present faulty methods, for with seventeen points against it the visitors were helpless at the outset.

N. C. Reynal, of the Westchester team, played a capital game against Kimball, whom he defeated by 5 holes, while J. B. Harriman was also successful over W. H. Davis by 2 holes. This latter was the only match that was decided at eighteen holes, all the others being thirty-six, but as Harriman did not arrive until the afternoon train from the city was found impossible to class him with the others J. I. Blair, ir., a former member of the Princeton golf team, appeared with the Westchester men, but to the surprise of every one he was beaten by Jasper Lynch by 12 holes. Meanwhile, a handicap at medal play had been in progress, and the competitors in the team match were given the privilege of entering their scores for the handicap cup. There were more than thirty starters in this affair, many of the competitors coming straight from their rounds at the Ocean County links, about a mile away. The winner was Roy de Raismes, a youngster of thirteen, who comes of stern golfing stock and plays with the

The New-York baseball team, fresh from the South, opened the exhibition series at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon with the Yale team. As was expected, the local players won easily. The New-Yorkers presented a patched-up team, George Davis and Doyle being out of the game. J. I. Davis played at shortstop, but his work there was not brilliant. Doheny and Colcolough did the was not brilliant. Doheny and Colcolough did the pitching against the Vale men. The college pitchers, Cook and Robertson, also did good work. The former retired in favor of the latter in the seventh inning. Camp, Vale's shortstop, carried off the fielding honors of the day, playing his position well. Sulliven and Quimby also played good ball for the collegians. The New-Yorkers did not make a good showing in the field, though Hartman and Gleason played satisfactorily.

PRINCETON DEFEATS FORDHAM.

Princeton, N. J., April 8 (Special).-Princeton defeated Fordham here to-day in an interesting game. Both teams fielded cleanly, but the batting was not strong. Princeton having ten men left on bases. Harrison was effective, only allowing Fordham two hits in eight innings, but in the ninth the visitors bunched four hits, which produced three runs. McKenna, for Fordham, pitched well, though his wildness gave Princeton several runs. He was generally effective with men on bases. Princeton's best hitting came in the eighth and ninth innings. The weather was cold and threatening, but a good-sized crowd witnessed the contest. Score:

HARVARD, 5: TUFTS, 1.

Cambridge, Mass., April 8.-Harvard opened its baseball season to-day by defeating Tufts College by a score of 5 to 1 on Soldiers' Field. For the first game of the season the showing made by the Harvard team was distinctly encouraging. The members of the team backed each other up well. and Captain Haughton kept his men on the jump throughout the game. Dibblee's work in centre throughout the game. Dibblee's work in centre field fully justified his trial. Goodrich, the old Williams player, made a good start on the Harvard diamond at first base, and did the best fielding for the Crimson, besides doing well at the bat. Reid, the Harvard fullback and catcher, showed his lack of early training, but did the best batting of the day, his record being three hits with a total of five out of five times at bat. The score by innings follows:

OPENING DAY AT NEWPORT.

Cincinnati. April 8.-The fourth annual spring Newport, Ky., to-day, under many disadvantages. The weather was cold and raw and the track a sea of mud. Every race on the card was hotly contested, and in several of the events head finishes resulted.

The horses from the New-Orleans meeting were much in evidence to-day, five out of the six winners being those which raced at the Crescent City during the winter. Summaries:

LACROSSE.

JOHNS HOPKINS PLAYERS DEFEAT THE COLUM-BIA TEAM.

A lacrosse game between teams representing Columbia University and Johns Hopkins University was played at Berkeley Oval yesterday, and re-sulted in a victory for the Johns Hopkins team by a score of 9 goals to 1. The game was sharp and fast throughout on the part of bigh teams. Colum-bia, however, was weak on the defence. The men showed a lack of experience. The Columbia boys were somewhat surprised at their defeat, as they had expected to win easily. For the visitors Fitzgeraid, McInness and Grines played a good game, while for Columbia Gleschen and Boyd played well. Covert scored Columbia's only goal. Of the Johns Hopkins men McInnes scored 4. Grines, 2. Fitzgerald 2 and Taylor 1. The line-up.
